II. 2025-368 Review of HOPE Plan Options

Kern and Janssen reviewed the current HOPE plans the county offers its employees and a separate high-deductible plan that the county could consider as an option for employees. The committee asked various questions and decided not to consider the separate high-deductible plan that was presented. Janssen discussed a partially self-funded plan with the committee. The committee agreed to have the County Administrator reach out to HOPE for more information and a possible discussion at a future Finance meeting. Kern continued the discussion with information on the HRP Plus Premium Program. He asked the committee to read the provided material and reach out with any questions.
